

Mt. Washington

cultural council 2015 programs

June 20, 1pm “Edible Perennial Gardening and Landscaping” with Naturalist and Educator, John Root

This informative presentation provides knowledge on what perennial plants, shrubs, and trees can be grown in or found in our area to produce fruits, nuts and vegetables. Learn organic methods of cultivation and instructions for the maintenance and care of these plants.

July 18, 2pm “Dig into clay” with Pied Potter of Hamelin

Rick Hamelin, a potter and artist since the 1970’s, will intrigue adults and children alike with the history and legends of pottery and its makers. Certain clays are found in Massachusetts. The Pied Potter will demonstrate using his electric potting wheel and you will be amazed at what he produces at the event.

August 8, 2pm Storyteller and Musician John Porcino

For 30 years John has been telling stories and playing music together. His art of storytelling, warmth, and humor, and the audience participation will draw you in. He has been quoted as, “A combination of Robin Williams, Captain Kangaroo, and Pete Seeger....”

August 22, 6-9pm Latin Salsa Band
Potluck at 5:00pm (Prior to show) Town Hall

Wear your dancing shoes and enjoy this lively Latin Salsa band featuring 8 musicians, percussion, horns, and vocals providing tangos, sambas, cha chas and much more!! Bring a Latin-inspired dish to the potluck!

September 27, 1pm 3rd Annual Oktoberfest at Camp Hi-Rock

Enjoy the foliage, eat, drink, and dance to the music of the “Hofbrauhaus Bavarian Band” featuring a clarinet/saxophone section, a brass section, drums, and accordions. Kick up your heels to waltzes, polkas and more. Grill goods provided. Side dishes and libations are potluck.

Calendar at a glance

- * June 20 , 1pm “Edible Perennial Landscaping” with John Root
- * July 18, 2pm “Dig into Clay” with Pied Potter of Hamelin
- * August 8, 2pm Storyteller and Musician - John Porcino
- * August 22, 6-9pm Latin Band/ 5pm potluck at Town Hall
- * Sept. 27, 1-4pm Annual Oktoberfest at Camp Hi-Rock/German potluck featuring Hofbrauhaus Bavarian Band

Amazing entertainment on the mountain made possible by the.....

