

Mt. Washington

cultural council 2017 programs

“Poetry & Potluck” Sunday, February 19, 1 pm

Bring food and words of poetry to share with your Mt. Washington neighbors. This annual gathering is sure to warm your bodies and your souls as we share words of inspiration.

“Song Notes” Concert with David Maloof Saturday, June 24, 7 pm – (Potluck at 6 pm)

“Song Notes” is a concert for everyone! David connects songs to their writers, through entertainment and education. He tells the stories and sings and plays the songs of writers, including Irving Berlin, Duke Ellington, Hank Williams, Billie Holliday, Lennon & McCartney, Carole King, Joni Mitchell and many others. He shares the link between great writers and great songs, while performing the songbook of our lives!

“Songbirds of the Northeast” with John Root
Saturday, July 29, 2 pm

“Songbirds of the Northeast” is a powerful presentation featuring photographs and recordings of our region’s songbirds. The role of song in these birds' lives, as well as their diet, social behavior, and other adaptations for survival, are discussed. Participants will learn how to provide attractive habitat for songbirds.

“5th Annual Oktoberfest” at Camp Hi-Rock (Potluck)
Sunday, September 17, 1 pm – with Hofbräuhaus Band

Enjoy the foliage, eat, drink, and dance to the music of this authentic Hofbräuhaus Bavarian Band! Grill goods provided! Side dishes and libations are Potluck!
Rain or Shine!

Season At-A-Glance
February 19 – “Poetry and Potluck”
June 24 – “Song Notes” Summer Concert with David Maloof
July 29 – “Songbirds of the Northeast” with John Root
September 17 – “Annual Oktoberfest” at Camp Hi Rock with Hofbräuhaus Band

Amazing entertainment on the mountain made possible by the

Massachusetts Cultural Council

Mt. Washington Cultural Council