

Mount Washington cultural council 2018 programs

Sunday, February 4th, 1 pm Poetry & Potluck

Bring food and words of poetry to share with your Mount Washington neighbors. This annual gathering is sure to warm your bodies and your souls as we share words of inspiration.

To Life! with John Porcino

Saturday, June 23, 7 pm (Potluck at 6 pm)

Acclaimed storyteller and musician, John Porcino performances are a mix of stories and songs that come to life with warmth, humor, a playful touch of audience participation, and a twist of music from around the world.

Henry the Juggler Saturday, July 29, 6 pm (Potluck 5 pm)

Henry juggles balls, clubs, rings, flaming torches and walks on a wire in a show the whole family will enjoy!

6th Annual Oktoberfest at Camp Hi-Rock (Potluck)
Sunday, September 16, 1 pm - with New England Swing Band

Enjoy the foliage, eat, drink, and dance to the music of this New England Swing Orchestra playing great songs from the BIG BAND ERA! Grill goods provided! Side dishes and libations are Potluck!
Rain or Shine!

Winter Solstice Wreath Making
Sunday, December 2 @ 1 pm

Come in out of the cold and enjoy hot chocolate, cider, and cookies, while learning how to make a winter solstice wreath. Peggy Henden-Wilson brings her renowned craftsmanship and all the supplies you will need to make your very own wreath just in time for the winter solstice.

Season At-A-Glance

February 4 - Poetry & Potluck

June 23 - To Life! with John Porcino

July 29 - Henry the Juggler

September 16 - Annual Oktoberfest at Camp Hi Rock with New England Swing

December 2 - Winter Solstice Wreath Making

Amazing entertainment on the mountain made possible by the

Massachusetts Cultural Council

Mount Washington Cultural Council